SUPREME COURT—AT CHAMBERS.

MONDAY, Nov. 5.

Probate Division. Before Mr. Justice Preston. Estate Charles Brenig, continued from October 29. This was an application filed by Hon. S. B. Dole for probate of the will executed some ten years ago in the upper story of a store on the corner of Fort and Merchant streets, then occupied by Ira Richardson as a boot and shoe store, the upper part being then occupied as a law office by Mr. Dole, all of which have been demolished and replaced by a portion of the Campbell Block. The application was resisted by the widow and a relative claiming as next of kin of a reputed son of the deceased—the son being supposed to be in the American navy. The Court after hearing the evidence of the widow, Arthur W. Richardson (subscribing witness), S. B. Dole and C. Brown, ordered that the will be admitted and that letters be issued to S. B. Dole as executor under bond of $11,000. The value of the estate is put down at $35,300 for real estate, and $10,700 personal property consisting of cash and investments. The amount of $4,000 is devised to Edward P. Adams, and the rest and residue of the property both real and personal to Samuel M. Damon, subject to the widow's dower. An appeal to a jury was noted by the widow and Samuel Maikai, contestants. A remarkable coincidence transpiring in the case is that Arthur W. Richardson, who subscribed to the will as a witness some ten years ago, testified that the will was executed at a spot just about where he is now employed, being now the office of the American Consulate. C. Brown appeared for the proponent, V. V. Ashford for the widow, and Chas. L. Carter for Samuel Maikai.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The American bark Forest Queen sailed on Saturday for San Francisco.

The French iron bark Delphine Melanie sailed on Saturday for Malden Island.

The Japanese steamship Takasago Maru, Captain Brown, is due here from Yokohama to-day.

The bark John Nicholson will return to Hongkong with Chinese passengers after unloading cargo.

The American barkentine Amelia, Captain Wm. Newhall, sailed out of the harbor November 6th, in ballast for Port Townsend, W. T.

The 51 German laborers that came by the ship J. C. Phipps from Bremen were shipped by the steamer Mikahala on Tuesday to the Lihue Sugar Plantation, Kauai.

The American bark Forest Queen, Captain J. C. M. Winding, sailed on Saturday with about 600 tons sugar and 200 barrels molasses, and five passengers for San Francisco.

The American schooner Anna sailed from Kaula, Maui, on November 7th, with a full cargo of sugar, the first of the season from the Spreckelsville Sugar Plantation.

H. B. M.'s flag ship Swiftsure received nearly 600 tons coal on Wednesday from the schooners Lihohio and Mary E. Foster and the steamer Pele which were towed out by the flag ship's steam launches.

The U. S. S. Brooklyn, Captain Wilson, was towed out of the harbor on Saturday morning by the tug Eleu on her way for New York by way of Cape Horn. Her departure was witnessed by a large number of people.

Not less than five steam launches from H. B. M.'s flag ship Swiftsure were ply between the vessel and the shore during Wednesday, and their performance was highly admired, some of them steaming at a very rapid rate.

The American brigantine J. D. Spreckels, Captain Robertson, arrived at Kaula, Maui, November 7th, with a full cargo of sugar with general merchandise. She is expected to sail again about November 16th with sugar for San Francisco.

Mr. E. Dowsett has purchased the sloop built by Mr. Waiua Napalona, and having received a new set of sails, the sloop has moved to be very fair made and beautiful. The performance of this yacht, although very much smaller than the Healani, has created a surprise among sporting circles.

LAW DIVISION. Before Mr. Justice Dole.

In re Raposa & Co., from yesterday, petition for adjudication in bankruptcy. Counsel stipulating for a discontinuance, it is allowed.

Probate Division. Before same as above. In re guardianship of Emilia Kahanalei. W. O. Smith for petitioner, and petitioner and minor present. Petition of D. L. Naone to be appointed guardian of the minor. Ordered that letters of guardianship be issued to petitioner, of the property only, the custody of the minor to remain with the grandmother until the further order of the Court, petitioner to act under $200 bond.

Equity Division. Before Chief Justice Judd. H. A. P. Carter vs. Kaikaula. C. L. Carter for plaintiff; no appearance of or for defendant. Petition for foreclosure of mortgage. Continued from 31st ult.; further continuance until 14th inst.

LAW DIVISION. Before the Chief Justice. In re bankruptcy of Geo. D. Freeth, of Honolulu. C. L. Carter for bankrupt; the latter in person. Seven claims are proved, amounting to $990.65. Chas. L. Carter is declared elected as assignee, to act under $200 bond.

FRIDAY, Nov. 9.

Probate Division. Before Mr. Justice Preston. Estate of J. F. Banning. Ordered that the second account of W. F. Allen, administrator with the will annexed, be approved. Receipts, $4,744.70; payments, $603.70; balance, $4,141. The administrator reported $129,900 of the estate money invested with good security, at an average of 7 per cent. interest, and $12,900.79 in cash on hand. All the interest as collected is paid Mrs. C. H. Banning under the terms of the will.

Emergencies and How to Meet Them. An instructive informal talk on the above practical topic was given Friday evening to a good, and apparently interested audience, by Dr. Day, at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. The emergencies treated of were mostly of a surgical nature, such as hemorrhage, apparent drowning, shock from injuries, burns, suffocation from noxious vapors, and the like. Illustrations of the means to be employed in various cases were given, members of the audience offering themselves for that purpose. At the close of the Doctor's remarks, a number of questions were asked by those present, and answered by the lecturer.

THE BASEBALL EXPEDITION.

The Spalding baseball contingent, due here on the 24th inst., are heard from on their first two days out from Chicago.

The All-American team were defeated in a rattling game before 3,000 spectators at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on October 23d, by the Chicago 10 to 5. The pitcher for the Chicago was H. H. Hootch, the Tenor's venerable father, who was present, never yet saw his son lose a game.

At Des Moines the following day the tables were turned, the All-American winning a fine game by 3 to 2. They had only one error charged to them, against three for the Chicagoans.

DEPARTURES OF THE BROOKLYN.

The U. S. S. Brooklyn, Capt. Wilson, after receiving repairs in this port, weighed anchor on Saturday at 10 o'clock for her voyage to New York. She was towed out by the tug Eleu and was cheered by the sailors of the U. S. S. Alert on leaving, her own sailors responding with lustiness and her home-bound pennant being flung to the breeze.

The Eleu had on board His Majesty the King, accompanied by Mr. J. W. Robertson, acting Chamberlain, Prince Kawakamaka, Majors Sam. Parker and John D. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hastings, Mrs. P. Neumann, Mrs. W. M. Giffard, Mr. and Mrs. Denig, Miss Rose Makee, Miss Fitzsimmons, Mr. and Mrs. Knapp, Miss Finkler, Capt. Graham of the Alert, Mr. E. C. Macfarlane, Mr. W. M. Graham, and several officers of the Alert. The Royal Hawaiian Band was with the ship.

The Brooklyn's band was playing and the string band of H. B. M. flag ship Swiftsure played a couple of airs as that ship was passed. On returning the Eleu at 11 o'clock port party on board the Alert, where a dance was held until 12:30 o'clock. It is said that the Brooklyn has spent $35,000 in this port during her stay of three weeks.
